Kevin Sneed

Job 1:6-22

1. Kevin opened up his sermon presenting how Lent is a way for us to prepare for Easter. What work do you hope God will do in you during Lent?
2. It was discussed how Lent allows us to look at our own frailty and brokenness. What's something you're hoping to resolve as you look inward?
3. We first see in the beginning of Job how the Lord allowed Satan to test Job. When have you experienced testing recently?
4. The book of Job will most likely leave us with more questions than answers. In what area of your life do you need to trust God with what you don't understand?
5. The sermon encouraged us to wrestle with God in our suffering. What would this look like for you?
6. Job is a distinct man in the Bible as he kept talking to God in his grief and suffering, a crucial lesson we can all learn from. What keeps you from talking to God?
7. The main idea of the sermon was, "allow suffering to drive you to God." How can this group be supporting and praying for you as you do this?
