Dan Reid

Job 16:1-22

1. Dan opened up his sermon on how we believe in God in a way that makes us comfortable. How do you meet God in your own preferences?
2. In Job 16, we see Job's lament and doubting God's justice. If you've ever doubted God's justice, under what circumstances and reasons were they?
3. In relation to the title of this sermon, "When God Doesn't Make Sense", can you recall a time when this may have been pertinent to you?
4. In Job 16:19, Job speaks of God as His "witness, advocate, and friend." Who in your life needs to hear this?
5. Dan shared the prominent verse Job 19:25; "I know that my redeemer lives." How have you experienced Christ as your personal Redeemer?
6. A main truth from the sermon was, "In the middle of suffering, we need to trust God; He has a vantage point." In what area of your life can you apply this and how may this group pray for you in this?
7. Who in your life could take comfort in this section of Job, and be refreshed that God's justice isn't delayed?
