

August 18, 2024

Kevin Sneed

John 6:60-69

To Whom Shall We Go?

1. What stood out to you the most from today's sermon?
2. How do you feel about the idea that the Church should transcend political spectrums?
3. In what ways have you seen political idolatry manifest in your own life or in the lives of others?
4. How can we ensure that our primary allegiance remains with Jesus rather than political leaders or parties?
5. What are some practical steps you can take to limit the influence of media and politics on your faith?
6. How do you respond to the statement, "Jesus alone holds the words of eternal life"?
7. What challenges do you face in remaining faithful to Jesus in our current political climate?
8. How can we support each other in our small group to stay focused on Jesus and His teachings in our political age?

Take Home Challenge

This week, commit to spending at least 15 minutes each day reading and reflecting on scripture, particularly focusing on the teachings of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mt. (Matthew 5-7). Additionally, set a specific limit on your media and social media consumption to ensure that you are more influenced by God's Word than by the prevailing cultural voices.